

Animal Cruelty.

Animals can't speak for themselves. They rely on humans who care about their well-being. If you know an animal that has been abandoned, neglected or mistreated, please let contact the Capital Area Humane Society at 614-777-7387 ext. 250 so that they may investigate or direct you to the proper resource.

Take all reports of animal abuse and cruelty seriously. When filing a complaint be prepared to provide the street address and zip code where the animal is located. Your call to the Humane Society will be confidential, but leaving a return phone number allows the Cruelty Investigators to contact you for

How to Recognize Animal Cruelty

- Extremely thin, starving animals.
- Wounds on the body.
- Patches of missing hair.
- Limping.
- Dogs who are repeatedly left alone without food, water or shelter, often chained or locked up in a yard.
- Animals that have been abandoned by their owner.
- An owner striking, or otherwise physically abusing an animal.
- Tick or flea infestations.
- Animals with an injury or illness who have not received medical

For more information on animal related contact information, programs, and brochures visit the Environmental Court's website.

Prepared by:
Franklin County Municipal Court Environmental Division
375 South High Street, Courtroom 15A/B
Columbus, Ohio 43215
Phone: 614-645-8742

www.environmentalcourt.us